FRx I

Synopsis:

FRx I teaches you important functionality and basic report design you need to realize immediate benefits from FRx. Even if you have experience using FRx to create reports, you will learn new reports and methods to distribute and analyze your company's financial information. This is a course designed for financial professionals on creating, maintaining and distributing presentation quality reports using FRx. Features covered include complex calculations, drag and drop reorganizations, rounding adjustments and account sets.

By actively participating in these classes, you should learn:

General functionality that serves as the foundation for more effective use of FRx.
How to navigate and create reports in FRx Desktop.
Techniques to drill down, analyze, print and export from the FRx DrillDown Viewer.
Ways to efficiently create and distribute many financial reports including: Trial balances, Balance sheets, Transaction Detail Reporting, Trended, Side by side, Actual vs. budget - Favorable/(Unfavorable), Rolling quarters, Rotate - Expenses in columns, Relational reporting - percent of sales.
Tips and tricks for increasing speed and accuracy of month end closing.
Troubleshooting tough reports.
Creation of presentation quality reports.
Electronic distribution - including chaining, email and sending reports to FRx WebView.
Security settings within FRx.
Many ways to improve your company's financial reporting package.

Who should attend?

This class is essential to anyone who uses FRx to create financial reports.

Price: $995 for 2 Days

Accepted Payment Methods: Check, Visa, MasterCard, American Express

Agenda:

Day 1:	Day 2:
8:30am-5:00pm	8:30am-5:00pm
Introduction and product overview	Building block concepts
Trial balance	About FRx specification sets
Subtotals and the DrillDown Viewer	Balance sheet report variations
Income statement reporting	Trended Reports
Working with FRx Reporting Trees	Variance Reports
Departmental reporting Catalog settings	Side by Side reporting
Transaction detail reporting	Relational reporting
Security in FRx	Report Distribution
	Troubleshooting
	Rotate building blocks
	Adding FRx data to MS Word Charts